The 2006 vintage is seen as another high quality year but yields in most varieties were down by 15-20%. The vintage was one of the earliest on record, with whites were nearly all picked by the end of March.

The 2006 Ratafia Riesling is a pale yellow golden colour with a distinctive toffee apple nose with hints of fairy floss. The generous palate of rich, mouth filling fruit with golden syrup characters, trails on to a lingering, cleansing finish. Serve chilled and best enjoyed a little at a time over several sittings.
