

2013 EDEN HALL BLOCK 4 SHIRAZ

RRP $40 / 1 2035 / ★★★★★☆

97

Superb example of the variety and region. Full-bodied but silken, ripped with inky blueberry and blackberry fruit flavour, but alive with violet, fresh mint and assorted garden herbs. Deep and wise, but sharp as a tack. Cut with rocky, mineral, smoky tannin. At the riper end of the spectrum, sure, but a powerhouse wine, a perfumed steamroller, and with a long future ahead. 14.5% alc.

David Hall

Owner/vigneron

What can we expect from this wine with age?

A silky smooth yet complex wine, whose powers of intrigue and seduction will only intensify with age. Share and savour this wine with confidence at any time in its life cycle.

What's the biggest cellaring mistake people should avoid and why?

Collect wines that you like and intend to drink, but in sufficient quantities to allow you to enjoy their development over the years. Don't just wait for the one big day that might end in tears!

EDEN HALL

Eden Valley, SA

0400 991 968
sales@edenhall.com.au
edenhall.com.au