2019 Vintage:

In a word, the 2019 growing season was – dry! It started off dry and stayed that way. Mother nature challenged the vines with more frosts than usual and a windy flowering period that disturbed fruit set.

To top it all off she threw in a hailstorm on 22 November! Thankfully the punch-drunk vines were given a small reprieve with no extreme temperatures in the ripening period and were put out of their misery with an early, compressed harvest beginning with the whites on 7th March and finishing with Shiraz on 22nd March. The 2019 vintage resulted in our lowest yield on record, but outstanding quality wines across all varieties. Whenever you can find it, grab any 2019 wine from the Barossa/Eden Valley!

2019 Eden Hall Springton Riesling tasting:

The 2019 Springton Riesling was carefully blended from 2 different blocks within the Avon Brae vineyard (65% Block 11 and 38% Block 8).

It is pale straw and has a lifted floral nose of Jasmin and rose petal. The palate is broad with lemon over lime. Balance and acid give clarity and length. An engaging, seamless Eden Valley Riesling from a miserly, but exceptional vintage. Drinking well now but built to last.

*Shiraz - Cabernet Sauvignon - Merlot
Cabernet Franc - Riesling - Viognier - Grüner Veltliner*
